A very modern but not excessively rational form, with that touch of irony that makes a design creative and poetic.

Small serving table formed by a circular removable tray-top in dark grey polyurethane, a base in polished chrome-plated steel, and bar in drawn steel. Each table is supplied with a silk red rose, that can be placed at the centre of the top.

Materials:

Top: polyurethane.

Base: base in polished chrome-plated steel with a bar in drawn steel.
